

Announcements:

- March 24- SNF- Meeting at the Montgomery’s House for the Kenosha Missions Trip
- Beef and Boards- April 12 (more details to come)

Order of Service for tonight:

- Opening Game: Feeling Green
- Announcements:
- Opener: Andy
- Songs:
  - Higher Ground (on screen)
  - Complete in Thee (on screen)
- Prayer:
- Message: Pastor Andy

Lesson 10
 “Is Life a Dead End?”
Ecclesiastes 6:1-12

The wisdom books of the Bible provide insight into living the "Good Life" in reverence of God. While Job addresses the struggles of suffering within a seemingly good life, prompting deeper understanding of God's sovereignty through pain, the Psalms guide emotional and worshipful expressions, emphasizing meaningful meditation on God's truth. Proverbs offers wisdom and principles for wise living and its consequences, while the Song of Solomon explores the dynamics of a good life within marriage.

However, Ecclesiastes challenges the notion of the good life, asking the question, “It is even attainable?” This book is a contrast between life “under the sun” and life in the fear of God. Is there really such a thing as a good life? Or does it all just lead to a dead end. In chapter 6, Solomon wrestles with the “under the sun” perspective to help us realize that without God, you cannot enjoy a meaningful life. With Him, you can.

You could have it all, yet not enjoy it all (6:1-6).

- Achievements can be wasted (v. 2).
  - Massive riches can be wasted.
  - Tons of stuff can be wasted.
  - Great respect can be wasted.
- Accomplishments can be empty (vs. 3-6).
  - He is successful, but not satisfied (v. 3a).
  - He is successful, but not mourned (v. 3b).
  - He is successful, but not at peace (vs. 4-6).
    - The unborn stay secret (v. 4).
    - The unborn get to stay ignorant (v. 5a).
    - The unborn get to stay rested (v. 5b).
    - The unborn get to arrive first (v. 6).

Other Notes: _____
 _____
 _____
 _____

