Lesson 11 – The Right Means: Fellowship

Imagine talking to an NFL coach and telling him you wanted to play in the NFL but not for a team. What do you think his response would be? Imagine telling Paul you wanted to be a Christian but didn't want to be a part of a church. I think Paul would give you the same response. All throughout Scripture it is assumed and stated that Christians need each other to grow. In this lesson, we will examine just a few passages that teach us how we as Christians ought to relate to one another.

BELIEVERS SHOULD HAVE AN _____ MINISTRY

1. We should seek to _____ others up (1 Corinthians 1:4-7).
Positive and encouraging speech is a necessary part of the Christian life. We need to appropriately edify and build each other up.
2. We should seek to provide _____ (2 Corinthians 1:3-4).
Building others up happens in all seasons of life, but comforting happens especially in the difficult times
 - _____ comforts us in our affliction (v 3)
 - God enables us to comfort _____ in their affliction (v 4)

BELIEVERS SHOULD HAVE AN _____ MINISTRY

1. The need for _____ (Hebrews 3:12-13).
2. The _____ for confrontation (Romans 15:14).
 - _____ – This passage is addressed to “brothers.” The only one properly equipped to confront a Christian is another Christian.

2. The _____ for confrontation (Romans 15:14).
 - _____ – This passage is addressed to “brothers.” The only one properly equipped to confront a Christian is another Christian.

- _____ – In order to help others, we must be in a position where we are living rightly.
- _____ – We must know God’s Word if we are to confront people with their sin from God’s Word.

3. The _____ of confrontation (Galatians 6:1).

- Confrontation should be _____-led.
Spiritual here doesn’t primarily mean “holy” or “pure” primarily, but rather refers to one who is walking in the Spirit (Gal 5:16-26).
- Confrontation should be _____.
Our rebukes should never be harsh or unkind, but should display a carefulness appropriate to the situation (cf 1 Thess 5:14).
- Confrontation should be _____.
Great care must be taken that pride be avoided when confronting on sin, because nothing will ruin the whole process and potentially the confronter like a spirit of pride.

BELIEVERS SHOULD HAVE A _____ MINISTRY

Although this is less direct, we can build each other up through our prayers as well. Since we have devoted an entire lesson to prayer, we will not take much time here to develop this topic, except to be reminded that a failure to pray for others when we ought to is a sin in God’s eyes (1 Samuel 12:23).
