

Manasseh and Amon: Too Far Gone?

Lesson 19

And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

Luke 23:42

Manasseh

When it comes to the kings of the southern kingdom, Manasseh stands out at the worst of the bunch. There is much to be learned from his evil example and from his humble end.

- I. Manasseh's _____ (2 Kings 21:1-9, 2 Chr 33:1-9).
  - A. _____ of Manasseh's reign (2 Kings 21:1-2, 9).

The synopsis of Manasseh's rule tells us that he was a wicked king, but that he reigned for 55 long years!
  - B. Manasseh rebuilds the _____ (2 Kings 21:3a).
  - C. Manasseh established _____ worship (2 Kings 21:3b).
  - D. Manasseh corrupts the _____ (2 Kings 21:4-5, 7-8).
  - E. Manasseh _____ his _____ (2 Kings 21:6a).
  - F. Manasseh engages in _____ (2 Kings 21:6b).
- II. Manasseh's _____ (2 Kings 21:10-18, 2 Chr 33:10-11).
  - A. God _____ Manasseh to forsake his ways (2 K 21:10-15).

God's words to Manasseh are pretty strong here, and will ultimately be fulfilled when Judah is taken captive to Babylon.

Manasseh and Amon: Too Far Gone?

Lesson 19

And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

Luke 23:42

Manasseh

When it comes to the kings of the southern kingdom, Manasseh stands out at the worst of the bunch. There is much to be learned from his evil example and from his humble end.

- I. Manasseh's _____ (2 Kings 21:1-9, 2 Chr 33:1-9).
  - A. _____ of Manasseh's reign (2 Kings 21:1-2, 9).

The synopsis of Manasseh's rule tells us that he was a wicked king, but that he reigned for 55 long years!
  - B. Manasseh rebuilds the _____ (2 Kings 21:3a).
  - C. Manasseh established _____ worship (2 Kings 21:3b).
  - D. Manasseh corrupts the _____ (2 Kings 21:4-5, 7-8).
  - E. Manasseh _____ his _____ (2 Kings 21:6a).
  - F. Manasseh engages in _____ (2 Kings 21:6b).
- II. Manasseh's _____ (2 Kings 21:10-18, 2 Chr 33:10-11).
  - A. God _____ Manasseh to forsake his ways (2 K 21:10-15).

God's words to Manasseh are pretty strong here, and will ultimately be fulfilled when Judah is taken captive to Babylon.

- B. Manasseh _____ God's warnings (2 K 21:16).
Another sad pattern we see is the king ignoring the prophet, and God's warnings here seem to fall on a deaf ear.
- C. God sent _____ to judge Manasseh (2 C 33:11).
Assyria captured Manasseh and sent him to Babylon.

III. Manasseh's _____ (2 Chr 33:12-20).

- A. Manasseh _____ and _____ to God (v 12-13).
When brought to the lowest point possible, Manasseh turned to God in a moment of desperation, and God rescued him.
- B. Manasseh _____ Judah (v 14).
After his humility and repentance God blesses Manasseh.
- C. Manasseh _____ the worship of God (vv 15-17).
Manasseh attempts to reverse course by uprooting the idolatry that he has started and to reestablish God's worship.

Amon

- I. Amon _____ to his father's former ways (2 Kings 21:19-22).
Despite the dramatic turn around experienced at the end of Manasseh's reign, his son Amon did not learn from his conversion.
- II. God brought swift _____ on Amon (2 Kings 21:23-26).
That God will show mercy no matter how far down we might sink is no reason to keep sinning – we don't know how long we have.

God's mercy truly knows no bound. It's not by accident that the most wicked king of the north (Ahab) and the most wicked king of the south (Manasseh) both humbled themselves before God and both received mercy. No matter how far you've gone, no matter what you've done, you stand within reach of God's mercy and grace.

- B. Manasseh _____ God's warnings (2 K 21:16).
Another sad pattern we see is the king ignoring the prophet, and God's warnings here seem to fall on a deaf ear.
- C. God sent _____ to judge Manasseh (2 C 33:11).
Assyria captured Manasseh and sent him to Babylon.

III. Manasseh's _____ (2 Chr 33:12-20).

- A. Manasseh _____ and _____ to God (v 12-13).
When brought to the lowest point possible, Manasseh turned to God in a moment of desperation, and God rescued him.
- B. Manasseh _____ Judah (v 14).
After his humility and repentance God blesses Manasseh.
- C. Manasseh _____ the worship of God (vv 15-17).
Manasseh attempts to reverse course by uprooting the idolatry that he has started and to reestablish God's worship.

Amon

- I. Amon _____ to his father's former ways (2 Kings 21:19-22).
Despite the dramatic turn around experienced at the end of Manasseh's reign, his son Amon did not learn from his conversion.
- II. God brought swift _____ on Amon (2 Kings 21:23-26).
That God will show mercy no matter how far down we might sink is no reason to keep sinning – we don't know how long we have.

God's mercy truly knows no bound. It's not by accident that the most wicked king of the north (Ahab) and the most wicked king of the south (Manasseh) both humbled themselves before God and both received mercy. No matter how far you've gone, no matter what you've done, you stand within reach of God's mercy and grace.