

GROW

AN SMBS SERIES

Lesson 3 – The Right Help

Many people know they aren't living right, but have saved and want to do so. They just aren't sure how to change so they try harder and harder, not realizing that God is ready to help them, if only they knew how to tap into that help.

WE NEED _____ HELP

- 1. Some think becoming holy is all their _____ work
Scripture commands Christians both generally (1 Peter 1:16; 1 Corinthians 10:31) and specifically (Ephesians 4:25-32) to obey, implying that we have at least some responsibility. But while God makes clear he has expectations for us, it is not enough to simply say, "Go do right." In our own power, without the help of God, the commands of Scripture can become daunting and crushing.
- 2. Some think becoming holy is all the work of _____
Other passages describe sanctification as the work of God (1 Thessalonians 5:23-24). People have reacted against the overemphasis on man's role by going to the opposite extreme, arguing that becoming holy is all the work of God and that you shouldn't try. They have confused how to be saved, which truly is a work of God alone, with living holy, which requires human effort.
- 3. The Bible teaches becoming holy requires _____.
The solution, of course, is that both are required. God must work, and we must work. God has a part to play, and we have a part to play (Philippians 2:12-13). We are to "work out" even as God "works in" us. This lesson and the next will examine God's part, and most of the rest of the series will examine our part and what it looks like practically to cooperate with God.

GROW

AN SMBS SERIES

Lesson 3 – The Right Help

Many people know they aren't living right, but have saved and want to do so. They just aren't sure how to change so they try harder and harder, not realizing that God is ready to help them, if only they knew how to tap into that help.

WE NEED _____ HELP

- 1. Some think becoming holy is all their _____ work
Scripture commands Christians both generally (1 Peter 1:16; 1 Corinthians 10:31) and specifically (Ephesians 4:25-32) to obey, implying that we have at least some responsibility. But while God makes clear he has expectations for us, it is not enough to simply say, "Go do right." In our own power, without the help of God, the commands of Scripture can become daunting and crushing.
- 2. Some think becoming holy is all the work of _____
Other passages describe sanctification as the work of God (1 Thessalonians 5:23-24). People have reacted against the overemphasis on man's role by going to the opposite extreme, arguing that becoming holy is all the work of God and that you shouldn't try. They have confused how to be saved, which truly is a work of God alone, with living holy, which requires human effort.
- 3. The Bible teaches becoming holy requires _____.
The solution, of course, is that both are required. God must work, and we must work. God has a part to play, and we have a part to play (Philippians 2:12-13). We are to "work out" even as God "works in" us. This lesson and the next will examine God's part, and most of the rest of the series will examine our part and what it looks like practically to cooperate with God.

WE NEED THE _____ HELP

1. Our _____ with the Spirit

- The _____ of the Spirit

The most common heresy regarding the Spirit is to view him as an impersonal force. But the Spirit does all the things a person does: thinks (John 14:26), feels (Ephesians 4:30), and wills (1 Corinthians 12:11), and is distinct from the Father and the Son (Matthew 28:19; 1 Peter 1:2; 2 Corinthians 13:14).

- The _____ of the Spirit (Ephesians 5:18).

Once saved, believers are indwelt by the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19, but the Spirit can be grieved (Ephesians 4:30) when we do wrong and even quenched (1 Thessalonians 5:19) Thus, the believer should seek to “be filled” with the Holy Spirit.

2. The _____ of the Spirit

- _____ (1 Corinthians 2:10-16)

One of the roles of the Holy Spirit is to help believers understand what it is the Bible teaches. Christ had said this would be one of the functions of the Spirit when he came (John 14:26).

- _____ (Romans 8:8-11)

Romans 6 asserts that believers don't have to sin, but Romans 7 bemoans that they still do sin. Romans 8 reminds us that 1) they no longer face condemnation for their sins (8:1) 2) the Spirit gave them spiritual life and continues to give them (8:11).

- _____ (Galatians 5:16-23)

Walking in the Spirit requires total surrender, in every area and not just in the areas we would like to give God (5:18-23), and it requires following the commands of the Spirit like a soldier would follow his commanding officer (5:25).

WE NEED THE _____ HELP

1. Our _____ with the Spirit

- The _____ of the Spirit

The most common heresy regarding the Spirit is to view him as an impersonal force. But the Spirit does all the things a person does: thinks (John 14:26), feels (Ephesians 4:30), and wills (1 Corinthians 12:11), and is distinct from the Father and the Son (Matthew 28:19; 1 Peter 1:2; 2 Corinthians 13:14).

- The _____ of the Spirit (Ephesians 5:18).

Once saved, believers are indwelt by the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19, but the Spirit can be grieved (Ephesians 4:30) when we do wrong and even quenched (1 Thessalonians 5:19) Thus, the believer should seek to “be filled” with the Holy Spirit.

2. The _____ of the Spirit

- _____ (1 Corinthians 2:10-16)

One of the roles of the Holy Spirit is to help believers understand what it is the Bible teaches. Christ had said this would be one of the functions of the Spirit when he came (John 14:26).

- _____ (Romans 8:8-11)

Romans 6 asserts that believers don't have to sin, but Romans 7 bemoans that they still do sin. Romans 8 reminds us that 1) they no longer face condemnation for their sins (8:1) 2) the Spirit gave them spiritual life and continues to give them (8:11).

- _____ (Galatians 5:16-23)

Walking in the Spirit requires total surrender, in every area and not just in the areas we would like to give God (5:18-23), and it requires following the commands of the Spirit like a soldier would follow his commanding officer (5:25).